Daisy: You mean Mrs. Gwynn said your singing was heavenly:

A. B.: Well, practically that. She said it was unearthly.

* * *

Howard: Excuse me for walking on your feet.

June: Oh, that's okay. I walk on them myself.

Bert: You see, I always believe in fighting the enemy with his own weapons.

Virginia: Really? How long does it take you to sting a wasp?

* * *

Jesse: Eat your spinach, Norma Kay. It will put color in your cheeks.

Norma Kay: Who wants green cheeks, anyway?

* * *

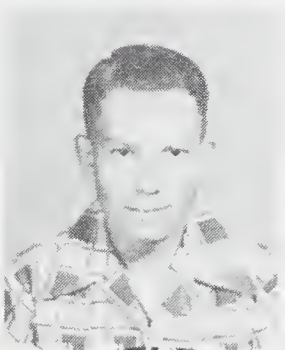

Mrs. Gwynn: Name a liquid that will not freeze.

Joan: Hot water.

* * *

Sam: Sorry I'm late, Mr. Crews. I'll be here bright and early tomorrow.

Mr. Crews: Don't promise the impossible. Just be here early.

William: What did the parking meter say to the car?

Raymond: If you have the money, I have the time.

Gene: When I was in Europe last summer, I learned to speak French in three weeks.

Mrs. Crews: Amazing! I can't understand it.

Gene: Neither could the French.

NOW FOR A SMILE

Mr. Jones: Now, remember, statistics don't lie. For example, if thirty men can put a car together in one day, then one man can do it in thirty days. Who can give me another example?

Buddy: I can. If one boat can cross the ocean in six days, then six boats can cross it in one day.

* * *

Maurice: Why did Bobby flood the gym floor?

W. H. : Because Mr. Crews told him to go in as a sub.

* * *

Miss Maney: Neva, don't you know Lincoln's Gettysburg Address?

Neva: I didn't even know he lived there.

* * *

Mr. Crews: Who is the laziest person in the class, Steve?

Steve: I don't know, sir.

Mr. Crews: Who sits idly in his seat watching the others writing and studying their lessons instead of working himself?

Steve: Oh! Why, you, sir.

* * *

Helen had answered the phone for the third time in two minutes and hung up each time after a brief remark. Finally Mr. Jones became inquisitive.

"Who was on the telephone?" he asked.

"Nobody, Sir," was the reply. " 'Ceptin' some lady keeps saying, 'It's a long distance from New York'. And I said, ' Yes, Ma'am, it sho' is.' "

* * *

Mrs. Stem: Willie, why did you kick Jesse in the stomach?

Willie: It was his fault; he turned around.

* * *

Leon: If you sleep at my house, you'll have to make your own bed.

Amos: Oh, that's all right. I won't mind.

Leon: O. K. Here's a hammer and saw.
